Re: U.S. Patent Application No. 10/534,055
National Phase of PCT/US03/09285
Entitled: "Transpedicular Intervertebral Disk Access Methods and Devices"

Dear Mr. Nguyen:

We are counsel for Medtronic Sofamor Danek. We write to ask that you execute the enclosed Declaration by signing and dating it in the spaces indicated, and that you return it to us in the envelope provided. Your signature on the Declaration verifies that you are a co-inventor in the above-referenced patent application, which was filed with the Patent Office on May 6, 2005. Further, your signature acknowledges that you are aware of your responsibility before the Patent Office to provide a copy of any information of which you become aware that may be considered relevant to the patentability of the invention. For your convenience, we enclose another copy of the application. We will need to file a copy of the executed Declaration with the Patent Office as soon as possible.

Your signature on the attached U.S. Postal Service return receipt postcard verifies that this letter has been forwarded to your correct mailing address. Therefore, your failure to sign, date, and return the Declaration indicates that you have no intention of doing so, and we will make no further attempts to contact you regarding this matter.

If you have any questions related to this matter, please feel free to contact us at your convenience.

Very truly yours,

Robert A. King
